SPONSORSHIP DECK

ABOUT

Known as the “Nightingale of Contemporary Times”, she captivates audiences through intimate baithaks that evoke the elegance of the Mughal era. Her soulful voice, classical ragas, and playful interaction create a deeply personal musical experience.

Her journey began at home at the age of seven, inspired by her mother’s daily bhajans. What started as a simple ritual soon became instinct. She didn’t just listen, she sang. Music didn’t feel like a choice; it felt like something she inherited.
